Where a Main School Full Boarding Place has been offered to a student who lives with parents within the UK, or is MOD sponsored, a non-refundable deposit of £500.00 (which will be set against the invoice for the first terms fees) will be required at the time of acceptance.

Where a Main School Full Boarding Place has been offered to a student whose main residence is with parents living outside of the UK, a non-refundable deposit of one terms fees will be required at the time of acceptance. This is returnable at the time a student leaves the College, or can be offset against the last term's fees.

Recognising the additional administration charges in accommodating most overseas-based pupils (excluding MOD sponsored Students) and that these costs should not be passed onto other parents, termly boarding fees for overseas-based pupils will attract a supplement of £25.00 per term.
